

Has America (finally) fallen out of love with Harry & Meghan?

SEE PAGE
19

Daily

dailymail.co.uk

Mail

SCAN TO SUBSCRIBE
AND SAVE

MONDAY, JANUARY 20, 2025

£1.10 85p to subscribers

FROM TERROR CAPTIVE...

As Hamas frees three women amid dramatic scenes, mother of British hostage's message to the world...

...TO HER MOTHER'S ARMS

Freedom: Emily Damari, top, is surrounded by militants yesterday before being reunited with her mother Mandy

Thank you for bringing Emily home

BRITISH hostage Emily Damari smiled defiantly at her Hamas captors as she was freed yesterday – before an emotional reunion with her mother.

The 'feisty' Tottenham Hotspur fan fearlessly walked through a crowd of gun-toting terrorists in Gaza City on her way to safety.

Emily, 28, was one of three women released

From Andy Jehring
at Sheba Hospital in Tel Aviv

by Hamas after a ceasefire began in Gaza. Her mother, Mandy Damari, 63, said last night: 'After 471 days, Emily is finally home. I want to thank everyone who never stopped fighting for Emily throughout this horrendous ordeal, and who never stopped saying her name.'

The mother and daughter were reunited after Red Cross vans sped Emily out of the Gaza

Turn to Page 5