Dubai to get a new Financial Centre

DUBAI
BY JUSTIN VARGHESE
Your Money Editor

Dubai's DMCC is setting up a new Financial Centre to anchor trade finance, fintech, and digital asset innovation, reinforcing the city's push to become one of the world's top financial hubs.

The announcement came as DMCC wrapped up its latest "Made For Trade Live" roadshow in Vietnam, which drew 550 Vietnamese business leaders in Hanoi and Ho Chi Minh City.

The new Financial Centre will bring together banks, fintech firms, accelerators, and investment companies within one integrated community.

'Financial spine'

DMCC said the hub will serve as the "financial spine" of its ecosystem, supporting its 26,000 member companies and expanding access to global capital markets.

It follows the launch of the DMCC Wealth Hub, which focuses on family offices and private capital, and builds on DMCC's collaboration with the Virtual Assets Regulatory Authority (VARA).

Ahmad Bin Sulayem, DMCC's Executive Chairman and CEO, said the new centre "will connect our 26,000 member companies more directly to the global financial system" and "advance Dubai's ambition to rank among the world's foremost financial hubs."
