

The Hunt For Tamara Ecclestone's STOLEN DIAMONDS

Warning: It's a wild ride!

Brand new podcast out now at
THECRIMEDESK.COM

KEMI: PM OWES APOLOGY TO SO MANY WOMEN

As Starmer FINALLY admits trans women aren't women,
Tory leader tears into Labour in electrifying debate...

KEMI Badenoch last night demanded Keir Starmer apologise to women after he finally broke his silence on the

By Martin Beckford Policy Editor
Supreme Court's biological sex ruling.

The Leader of the Opposition told the Mail that the Prime Minister should say sorry to those who had lost their jobs or were harassed in the row over equality law. Sir Keir has now dropped his belief that transgender women are women. In Parliament, Mrs Badenoch also urged him to apologise to MP Rosie

Duffield who was hounded out of Labour after she spoke up for female-only spaces – and told him to crack down on the trans activists who defaced Westminster statues in an angry weekend protest against the Turn to Page 6