

The joy of my first Mounjaro summer!

by NADINE DORRIES, 68

PAGES 20-21

Daily Mail

FRIDAY, JUNE 13, 2025

dailymail.co.uk

£1.20 90p to subscribers

THE MIRACLE OF SEAT 11A

I DON'T KNOW HOW I'M ALIVE

State of shock: Viswashkumar Ramesh

After at least 290 people – including 52 Britons – are killed in horrifying Air India crash, stunned disbelief of the Leicester man who's the sole survivor

By Inderdeep Bains and Andy Dolan

A BRITISH man has miraculously survived after a London-bound Air India flight crashed into a ball of flames moments after take-off, killing more than 290.

In astonishing scenes, a bloodied and shaken Viswashkumar Ramesh emerged limping from the smouldering wreck of the Boeing 787 yesterday morning. He was the only survivor on board.

The 38-year-old father of one, who was in seat 11A next to an emergency exit, video-called his family after the crash, saying: 'I don't know how

Lucky ticket: Mr Ramesh's boarding pass

Turn to Page 2