

Boston Sunday Globe

Serving our community since 1872

SEPTEMBER 6, 2026

A big bet on Encore, but has it paid off?

Though popular, some ambitions not yet reached

By Alexa Gagosz
GLOBE STAFF

The water shuttle to Encore Boston Harbor casino thrums up the Mystic River toward Everett, carrying an eclectic cast of characters: a lone financier tapping at his phone, a young couple taking selfies, a bearded man wearing a red MAGA hat who said he is homeless.

The boat passes former scrapyards and gritty warehouses, remnants of the Mystic's industrial heritage. Then, as it approaches a bend in the river, a bronze and glass tower appears, the single word "Encore" shimmering in gold script at its top like a $2.6 billion monument to the idea that everything in its glow, including the hardscrabble city of Everett, would be transformed.

That was the promise of owner Wynn Resorts, when it opened seven years ago. The casino would replace a contaminated industrial waterfront that had sat empty for a century, create thousands of union jobs, generate millions in tax revenue, and build a luxury destination that would bring visitors to a

ENCORE, Page A17

Doctors and insurers are routinely at odds over the length of hospitalizations as they base their decisions on different criteria.

Clancy trial puts spotlight on top hospital for mental health

McLean's role questioned amid changes, challenges testing industry

By Jason Laughlin
and Laura Crimaldi
GLOBE STAFF

BELMONT — Decades ago, a running joke about Boston's moneyed elite was that they, "lived on Beacon Hill and had an uncle in McLean."

The line spoke to the status enjoyed by McLean Hospital, a psychiatric inpatient facility renowned within the field and an institution in Massachusetts for more than two centuries. The hospital had a reputation for treating artists, including poets Sylvia Plath, Robert Lowell, and Anne Sexton, and musicians

James Taylor and Ray Charles. From the 1930s into the 1950s, some of the region's wealthy even had cottages on campus where they stayed during stressful times, said Alex Beam, who authored a book about McLean.

"Brookline ladies would come in to do their Christmas cards," said Beam, a contributing Globe opinion writer who added that among the hospital's very sick people in this era were some he called the "worried well."

The murder trial of Lindsay Clancy, who killed her three young children, put a different spotlight on McLean. Clancy received inpatient care at McLean's Belmont campus for major depressive disorder and insomnia from Jan. 1 to 5, 2023, just three weeks before she killed her children. The hospital is among the defendants

MCLEAN, Page A16

HOUSING BOOM COMES TO A ONCE QUIET ROAD

GENTRIFICATION TRANSFORMS A SINGLE STREET IN ROXBURY

By Mara Kardas-Nelson
GLOBE STAFF

The sales video opens with a panoramic view of downtown Boston, gleaming high-rises reaching to the sky. The camera slowly zooms in toward Roxbury, then to a few tree-lined streets, and then to one in particular: Montrose, a short stretch of gracious homes and gardens where prices have doubled in less than a decade.

The video shows an extensively renovated duplex, up for sale last year. The camera swoops through gleaming white kitchens, sun-filled bedrooms, bathrooms with tiled walk-in showers. Soon, the background music takes on an angelic quality. And why not? This is a vision of homeowner heaven — and with a sky-high asking price to match: $1.4 million.

"They fixed it up real nice," said Gladys Triplett, who had sold the property to developers. "But it's an outrageous price."

Triplett, who is in her 70s, had

MONTROSE ST., Page A12

Clockwise from top: Jonathan Allen and Derrick Young Jr. at their Montrose Street home. Phyllis Janey and Marie Lindahl outside Lindahl's home. The Gibbs family played soccer in their yard.

PHOTOS BY CRAIG F. WALKER/GLOBE STAFF

New season, next step up for Maye

On field and off, QB is now firmly in command

By Nicole Yang
GLOBE STAFF

FOXBOROUGH — When A.J. Brown arrived in New England, he already had an idea what to expect from his new quarterback, Drake Maye. He knew about his arm talent and accuracy. He had heard glowing reviews about his work ethic and character.

But on the day of Brown's first practice with the Patriots, Maye still surprised the star receiver.

"He kind of took over the meeting," Brown recalled. "[Offensive coordinator] Josh [McDaniels] was speaking. He cut Josh off, not in a rude way, but he just kind of took over. It says so much from a young guy, to know what he's talking about, number one, and to lead and to be the voice of this team. When I heard that, I was like, 'Wow.' That was impressive."

The moment reflected significant progress in a key area of Maye's individual development plan. After Maye's second NFL season, which culminated in a Super Bowl appearance and runner-up finish in MVP voting, McDaniels, quarterbacks coach Ashton Grant, and coach Mike Vrabel discussed how they could continue

MAYE, Page C10

Summing up

Sunday: Partly sunny. High: 68-73. Low: 57-62.
Monday: Sunny, nice. High: 77-82. Low: 60-65.
Sunrise: 6:14 Sunset: 7:10
Complete report, A24.
Deaths, A18-23.

Finding the magic

A year at Harvard Divinity School led Alice Hoffman, author of "Practical Magic," back to the art she loved. N1.

VOL. 310, NO. 68

Suggested retail price
$6.00

The American prison system is cruel. Maine is showing there is another way. Ideas, K1.
The campaigns behind, or trying to thwart, the nine ballot questions slated to go before voters have raised at least $10 million this year. B1.

Buy More House With Our 5/1 ARM!

- Fixed for the first 5 years!
- Purchase or Refinance, Loans up to $2 Million*
- Ask about our competitive 7/1 ARM

5/1 ADJUSTABLE RATE MORTGAGE

5.250% INTEREST RATE

6.243% APR*

NO POINTS! **

LEARN MORE AND APPLY ONLINE TODAY!

INSTITUTION FOR SAVINGS

BUILDING STRONGER COMMUNITIES TOGETHER SINCE 1820.

978-462-3106 | institutionforsavings.com | Member FDIC | Member DIF | Equal Housing Lender | NMLS# 2478201

*APR denotes Annual Percentage Rate as of 9/3/26 and is based on a $300,000 purchase loan or no-cash out refinance loan with minimum credit score of 720 and maximum LTV of 80%. Rate is subject to change without notice. Minimum loan amount is $100,000, maximum loan amount is $2 million. Owner-occupied single-family primary residences only. This is an adjustable rate loan. APR and payment are subject to increase after consummation of the loan. Unit cost per $1,000 borrowed is $5.52. After 5 years, rate will be adjusted annually to the weekly average yield on U. S. Treasury adjusted to a constant maturity of one year as published by the Federal Reserve Board in selected Interest Rate Publications plus a margin of 2.75%. The fully indexed rate, based on the current index and margin, is 6.750%. Unit cost at the fully indexed rate is $6.37 per $1,000 borrowed. Offer subject to credit approval. Property insurance required. Flood insurance required if the property is located in a FEMA Special Hazard Flood Zone. Unit cost per thousand examples do not include escrow amounts for real estate taxes and/or insurance, if applicable. This may increase payment amount. Other terms and conditions may apply.
Additional fees may be assessed for borrowers with credit scores lower than 720 and/or cash-out refinance loans.