

8-PAGE PUZZLE SPECIAL INSIDE

The Mail's £25,000 Easter Brain Teasers

TERMS APPLY

Daily Mail

dailymail.co.uk

MONDAY, APRIL 21, 2025

£1.20

SCAN TO SUBSCRIBE
AND SAVE

STARMER MUST BREAK HIS SILENCE ON TRANS JUDGMENT

Campaigners and MPs demand PM backs ruling after saying nothing for FIVE days

SIR Keir Starmer was last night under mounting pressure to break his silence over the Supreme Court's landmark gender ruling.

Five days after the judgment,

By David Churchill
and Sam Merriman

the Prime Minister was urged to publicly back it and promise not to unpick it, as it emerged two frontbenchers are plotting to defy the ruling.

But Downing Street yesterday refused to punish the ministers, claiming they were not trying to undermine the judgment.

Sir Keir's silence has sparked fresh fears ministers may allow the ruling – that men who change gender are not legally women – to be undone, with several bodies

Turn to Page 6

Is Liz Hurley
REALLY dating
Billy Ray Cyrus?

SEE PAGE 5

Easter kiss: The couple in photo posted yesterday