BENEFITS BILL IS ON COURSE TO ROCKET BY £18bn A YEAR

That's the same as ENTIRE police budget

SPENDING on sickness benefits is on course to rise by £18 billion without reform – more than the entire police budget.

Work and pensions secretary Liz Kendall is facing a furious backlash from Labour MPs and campaigners who warn that 'cruel' cuts to disability benefits will drive hundreds of thousands into poverty.

But official figures published alongside the Government's
