

My middle class mother beat me so hard I really thought she'd kill me

INSPIRE: STARTS PAGE 27

Daily Mail

dailymail.co.uk

MONDAY, FEBRUARY 3, 2025

£1.10 85p to subscribers

SCAN TO SUBSCRIBE
AND SAVE

LABOUR'S NEW BETRAYAL

Struggling businesses to 'pay price' of Starmer's Brexit reset

Locking us into the EU's net zero policy will mean higher costs for firms, experts warn

SUFFERING businesses are facing higher costs as Keir Starmer seeks to link Britain to the EU's green scheme.

The Prime Minister, who is in Brussels today as part of

By Martin Beckford
Policy Editor

his 'reset' five years after Brexit, wants to align the UK's emissions policy with that of the European Union.

But analysts and Leave campaigners say the move will drive up prices for British energy and manufacturing firms because the price of carbon is far higher on the continent.

There are fears it could even trigger higher electricity bills for households as well as businesses that have to buy permits to offset

Turn to Page 6

J-Lo brings glamour back to fire-ravaged LA

SEE PAGE THREE

