

TUESDAY, JANUARY 7, 2025

dailymail.co.uk

£1.10 85p to subscribers

SCAN TO SUBSCRIBE
AND SAVE

Which smart watch is best for tracking your health?

What's really making your joints ache (it's not the cold!)

Little-known signs that breast cancer has spread

GOOD HEALTH STARTS PAGE 30

STARMER'S FAR-RIGHT 'SMEAR' ON GROOMING GANG CRITICS

Fury as PM suggests those calling for inquiry into scandal are 'jumping on a far-Right bandwagon'

KEIR Starmer was last night accused of smear tactics after claiming those wanting an inquiry into the grooming gangs scandal were 'jumping on a far-Right bandwagon'.

The Prime Minister triggered a

By Jason Groves
Political Editor

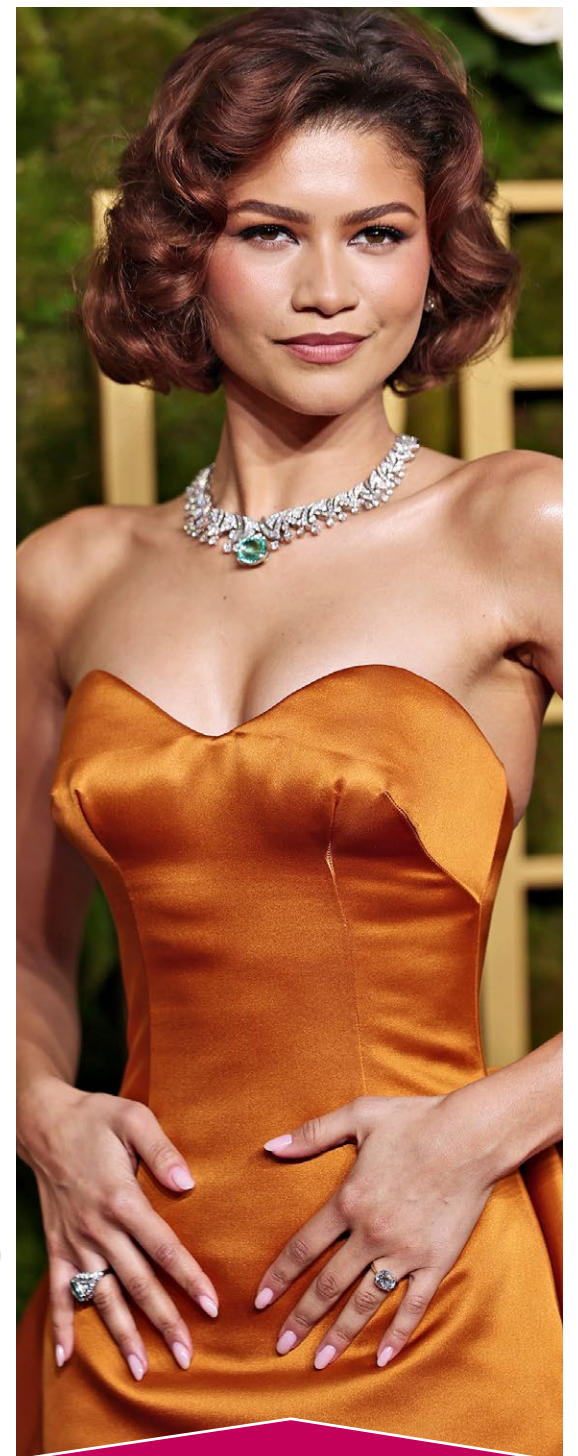

furious backlash after saying Tory demands for an inquiry into the rape of thousands of white girls by gangs of predominantly Pakistani-origin men were 'amplifying what the far-Right are saying'.

Sir Keir also angrily defended his record as Director of Public Prosecutions after Tesla tycoon Elon Musk suggested he was 'complicit' in the failure to tackle the abuse. And he claimed Kemi Badenoch's interventions on the issue showed she was 'desperate for attention'.

The Tory leader hit back, accusing the PM of 'applying Labour smear tactics from 20 years ago'. She added:

Turn to Page 2

Zendaya 'engaged' to her British superhero Tom

SEE PAGE THREE