Landlord to pay Dh700,000 for evicting tenant

LANDMARK JUDGMENT ISSUED BY DUBAI RENTAL DISPUTES CENTRE

DUBAI
BY AGHADDIR ALI
Senior Reporter

The Dubai Rental Disputes Centre has issued a landmark judgment, ordering a landlord to pay Dh700,000 in compensation to a tenant after it was found that the landlord had manipulated legal procedures to wrongfully evict the tenant. The compensation amount is equal to three years of annual rent.

The case involved a European tenant who had fully paid the annual rent for the 2023-2024 lease period to the original owner. However, after the villa was sold to a new landlord, the new owner falsely claimed the rent had not been paid and filed a case seeking the tenant's eviction.

Devious means

The new landlord deliberately provided an incorrect email address for the tenant which prevented the latter from receiving court notifications, and as a result, was unaware of the case and was issued a default judgment for eviction and rent arrears.

After the initial ruling, the landlord proceeded with enforcement actions, including changing the villa's locks, removing all furniture, and even requesting the court to impose travel bans and financial restrictions on the tenant. Upon returning from his annual vacation, the tenant was shocked to find himself locked out of his own home, completely unaware of the case against him.

The tenant then sought legal advice and was able to prove the landlord's misconduct. Following a thorough investigation, the Rental Disputes Centre overturned the eviction order and annulled all related enforcement actions. In addition to reclaiming his right to the property, the tenant filed a lawsuit seeking compensation for damages caused by the unlawful eviction.

Judge Abdul Qader Mousa Mohammad, Chairman of the Dubai Rental Disputes Centre, reaffirmed the Centre's commitment to protecting the rights of both landlords and tenants, ensuring stability in rental agreements, and preventing misuse of legal procedures. He warned landlords against engaging in deceptive practices to unjustly evict tenants for financial gain, noting that such actions could lead to legal and financial repercussions.

Trump warns Gaza 'you are dead' if hostages not freed

Hamas spokesman says US stance emboldens Israel to disregard ceasefire

WASHINGTON

US President Donald Trump on Wednesday threatened further destruction of Gaza if all remaining hostages are not released, and issued an ultimatum to Hamas leaders to flee.

The United States meanwhile confirmed unprecedented direct talks with Hamas focused on American hostages in Gaza.

Trump said he was "sending Israel everything it needs to finish the job" as his administration expedites billions of dollars in weapons.

"Release all of the Hostages now, not later, and immediately return all of the dead bodies of the people you murdered, or it is OVER for you," he wrote on his Truth Social platform after meeting freed hostages.

"This is your last warning! For the leadership, now is the time to leave Gaza, while you still have a chance."

Trump also warned of repercussions for Gaza as a whole. "To the People of Gaza: A beautiful Future awaits, but not if you hold Hostages. If you do, you are DEAD!"

Hamas spokesman Hazem Qasim said Trump's words pushed Israel to disregard the terms of a ceasefire in place since January 19.

Also on Wednesday, France, Britain and Germany jointly called the humanitarian situation in Gaza "catastrophic," and urged Israel to ensure "unhindered" delivery of aid.
