

Why EVERY woman needs a MIDLIFE CRISIS

by KATE MUIR

My front row seat as Liz Truss unravelled as PM...

by JEREMY HUNT

PAGES 46-48

PAGES 40-42

RAYNER ON THE RAMPAGE

After pressing Reeves to hike taxes, she clashes with Chancellor and Starmer on cuts — as supporters eye up her leadership chances

EXCLUSIVE

By Harriet Line and Jason Groves

ANGELA Rayner is at war with Keir Starmer and Rachel Reeves over plans to slash her department's budget, the Mail can reveal.

In a series of increasingly heated meetings, the Deputy Prime Minister is said to have complained 'forcibly' about proposals to squeeze spending on housing.

Ms Rayner, who this week sparked fevered speculation about her leadership ambitions, is set to be one of the biggest losers at next month's comprehensive spending review.

Labour sources said she had confronted the Prime Minister and Chancellor about the plans in recent weeks but had got nowhere.

It is the latest sign of splits between Ms

Turn to Page 6

Superstar: Freddie with Mary Austin, one of several women he went out with

WORLD EXCLUSIVE

Freddie Mercury had a secret daughter

SEE PAGES 8&9