

8-PAGE PUZZLE SPECIAL INSIDE

£25,000 ^{TO BE} WON

with our Easter Brain Teasers

SEE
CENTRE PAGES
Terms apply

LABOUR'S TRANS TURMOIL

As Supreme Court judgment piles pressure on Starmer to protect women-only spaces, leaked messages reveal revolt on frontbench

MINISTERS IN WHATSAPP PLOT TO DEFEY TRANS RULING

LABOUR ministers are secretly plotting to defy the landmark court ruling that men who change gender are not legally women, leaked WhatsApp messages obtained by The Mail on Sunday have revealed.

The Government claimed to welcome the Supreme Court judgment – but the

EXCLUSIVE

By Glen Owen

POLITICAL EDITOR

exchanges reveal the private fury on Sir Keir Starmer's frontbench, with ministers planning to hold a meeting this week to 'decide a way forwards' and 'organise'.

In the messages, sent on Thursday evening, Culture Minister Sir Chris Bryant joined an attack on Baroness Falkner, chairwoman of the Equality and Human Rights Commission (EHRC), who earlier that day

Turn to Page 4 >>

Is Victoria's party outfit new salvo in Beckham family feud?

KATIE HIND, Page 3