As horrifying new details emerge of attack by Manchester Arena bomb plotter on three prison officers, MPs say enough is enough...

TIME TO STOP 'APPEASING' EXTREMISTS IN OUR JAILS

MINISTERS must stop appeasing jailed terrorists after a brutal attack left three prison officers 'millimetres' from death, a top Tory said last night.

Prison officials need to regain control from Islamist extremists allowed to 'rule the roost' behind bars, Conservative justice spokesman Robert Jenrick added.

Questions mounted last night over why Manchester Arena bomb plotter Hashem Abedi, 28, had access to a 'self-cook kitchen', hot cooking oil and the materials for the makeshift weapons used in his attack.

Abedi – who helped his brother, suicide bomber Salman Abedi, plan the Manchester atrocity – fashioned two 20cm blades from a baking tray.

He hurled hot oil on the three officers before attacking them with the blades. Writing in the Daily Mail,
