

Two years of Ozempic left me with saggy batwings, hollow cheeks and thighs like ruched curtains

SEE PAGES
20-21

Kemi: I'll ban migrants who claim benefits from becoming UK citizens

MIGRANTS who claim benefits will be banned from ever settling in Britain under Tory plans to tackle immigration.

Kemi Badenoch will today take the fight to Reform UK

By Jason Groves
Political Editor

with plans for a dramatic tightening of the rules that allow migrants who arrive on work visas to settle permanently.

The period before migrants can claim 'indefinite leave to remain' will be doubled from five years to ten and people will have to show they are earning enough to support themselves.

Under Mrs Badenoch's first major policy announcement as Tory leader, applicants will face stringent new conditions before the

Turn to Page 2

BACK TO BROWN: Marisa celebrates Bafta nod

SEE PAGE THREE

