Fashion, style
choices guide UAE residents’
travel plans

DUBAI

BY JUSTIN VARGHESE

For many UAE travellers, the next holiday destination isn’t just about beaches, food, or shopping malls – it’s about fashion.

A new Skyscanner survey of 1,000 UAE residents found that 86 per cent of leisure travellers with an interest in fashion let style influence where they fly. Gen Zs are leading the trend, with one in two seeking out local designers abroad.

■ 77 per cent look to social media to discover new fashion hotspots.

■ 50 per cent rely on influencers and fashion magazines.

■ 69 per cent say Europe tops their list for exploring style.

■ 63 per cent want to experience Asia’s local fashion scenes.

While Paris remains the most stylish city in the world according to 46 per cent of respondents, Dubai follows closely behind at 37 per cent.

‘Cowardly, treacherous’: Qatar Emir slams Israel over attack

ISRAEL ACCUSED OF DELIBERATELY TRYING TO SABOTAGE GAZA TRUCE EFFORTS

BY STEPHEN N. R.

Qatar’s Emir Shaikh
Tamim Bin Hamad
Al Thani yesterday accused Israel of deliberately trying to sabotage ceasefire efforts in Gaza with its attack on Hamas leaders in Doha, as Arab and Muslim leaders gathered for emergency talks to forge a unified response.

The joint Arab League and Organisation of Islamic Cooperation (OIC) Summit, convened in Doha, sought to pile pressure on Israel amid mounting international calls to end the war and address the deepening humanitarian crisis in Gaza.

On behalf of President His Highness Shaikh Mohammad Bin Zayed Al Nahyan, Shaikh Mansour Bin Zayed Al Nahyan, Vice-President, Deputy Prime Minister and Chairman of the Presidential Court, attended the summit.

No interest in hostages

Shaikh Tamim charged that Israel had no real interest in rescuing hostages, but instead was bent on ensuring “Gaza is no longer liveable.” “If Israel wishes to assassinate Hamas leaders, why then engage in negotiations?” he asked. “If you wish to insist on the liberation of hostages, why then do they assassinate all negotiators? There is no room to deal with such a party that’s cowardly and treacherous. Those who work consistently to assassinate the party in these negotiations will certainly do everything to ensure the failure of these negotiations. When they claim that they seek the liberation of hostages, that’s a mere lie.”

Hamas says its top officials survived last week’s Israeli airstrikes in Doha, which killed six people and drew sharp international criticism – including a rare rebuke from US President Donald Trump. Qatar has been a key mediator in ceasefire talks alongside Egypt and the United States, but the airstrikes hit as Hamas officials were weighing a new US proposal. “Whoever works diligently and systematically to assassinate the party with whom he is negotiating, intends to thwart the negotiations,” Shaikh Tamim said in his opening remarks. “Negotiations, for them, are merely part of the war.”

The Emir further warned that Israeli Prime Minister Benjamin Netanyahu “dreams of turning the Arab region into an Israeli sphere of influence, and this is a dangerous illusion.” As the summit opened in Doha, US Secretary of State Marco Rubio was in Israel to underscore Washington’s staunch support. A US official confirmed Rubio would travel to Qatar today.

Among leaders attending were Saudi Crown Prince Mohammad Bin Salman, Iranian President Masoud Pezeshkian, Turkish President Recep Tayyip Erdogan, Palestinian President Mahmoud Abbas, Jordan’s King Abdullah
II and Pakistani Prime Minister Shehbaz Sharif.
