

Get this newspaper
FOR ONLY 56p
Subscribe at mailsubscriptions.co.uk

Better than HALF PRICE

SEE
PAGE 2

Daily Mail
THURSDAY, APRIL 3, 2025
dailymail.co.uk

SCAN TO SUBSCRIBE
AND SAVE

£1.20

■ Brexit Britain is hit with 10% export tariffs

■ But EU hammered
with 20% levy by U.S.

TRUMP'S TARIFF WAR ON 'FOREIGN SCAVENGERS'

By Jason Groves
Political Editor

DONALD Trump triggered a global trade war last night – with Britain among the countries hit by a blizzard of damaging new tariffs.

In a bombshell yet often rambling announcement, the US President said he was pressing ahead immediately with new levies on all imports on what he dubbed 'Liberation Day'.

Mr Trump said the US economy had been 'looted, pillaged, raped and plundered... by friend and foe' – and vowed to end what he called the 'unilateral policy of economic surrender' to 'foreign scavengers'.

World leaders, including Sir Keir Starmer, watched on live TV as the President used an extraordinary press conference in the White House's Rose Garden to confirm he is launching a tariff blitz which economists fear could lead to a global downturn.

He said UK imports would face 10 per cent tariffs – half that imposed on the EU. It represents a key benefit of Brexit and will be viewed by many as a signal that a deal is possible. The new levy, which comes into force on Saturday,

Turn to Page 6

Making his point: Donald Trump during last night's tariffs announcement at the White House