World's top four safest cities are in UAE

ABU DHABI
BY ABDULLA RASHEED
Abu Dhabi Editor

For the ninth year in a row, Abu Dhabi has been ranked first on the world's safest cities list in 2025.

Online database Numbeo's ranking saw the UAE capital surpass 382 cities. The second, third and fourth safest were also UAE cities – Dubai, Sharjah and Ras Al Khaimah.

Abu Dhabi has dominated the safety index since 2017.

Modernisation drive

Major General Ahmad Saif Bin Zaitoun Al Muhairi, Commander-in-Chief of Abu Dhabi Police, said the accomplishment in part stems from a modernisation drive using latest security tech, including artificial intelligence.

Major General Shaikh Mohammad Bin Tahnoon Al Nahyan, Director-General of Abu Dhabi Police, said in the coming phase, the emphasis will be on closer partnerships with strategic stakeholders.

TRUMP: GOLDEN AGE OF AMERICA BEGINS

UAE PRESIDENT CONGRATULATES TRUMP, LOOKS FORWARD TO ENHANCING TIES

WASHINGTON

Donald Trump pronounced the start of a "golden age" in the United States after taking the oath for a historic second term as president yesterday, using his inaugural speech to lash out at what he described as a "broken" society that he would rescue.

"The golden age of America begins right now. From this day forward our country will flourish and be respected again all over the world," Trump said in the US Capitol, where his inauguration was held indoors due to chilly weather.

While promising renewal, Trump's tone was characteristically dark, denouncing what he said had been a "betrayal" of Americans by a "radical and corrupt establishment."

"For many years, a radical and corrupt establishment has extracted power and wealth from our citizens, while the pillars of our society lay broken and seemingly in complete disrepair," he said. "From this moment on, America's decline is over."

Trump, the 47th US president, used his inaugural speech to lash out at what he described as a 'broken' society that he would rescue.

Ruler of Dubai, and Shaikh Mansour Bin Zayed Al Nahyan, Vice-President, Deputy Prime Minister, and Chairman of the Presidential Court, sent similar congratulatory cables to the US President.

"I wish him and his administration success and I look forward to working with him to advance our strategic relations for the benefit of our two countries and to cooperate to promote peace and stability in the region," Shaikh Mohammad Bin Zayed wrote on X.

Trump was set to kickstart his new term with a blitz of immediate orders on immigration and the US culture wars. "I will declare a national emergency at our southern border" with Mexico, Trump said to loud cheers from supporters inside the ornate Rotunda hall, vowing to deport "millions and millions" of illegal immigrants. —Agencies

Rapist-murderer of Indian doctor sentenced to life

Victim's parents vow to fight for death penalty

KOLKATA

The rapist and murderer of an Indian doctor was sentenced to life in prison yesterday for a gruesome crime that sparked nationwide protests and widespread hospital strikes last year.

The family of the 31-year-old medic broke into tears saying they were "shocked" at the sentence and had hoped her murderer would be hanged, for a case that highlighted the chronic issue of violence against women in the world's most populous country.

But Judge Anirban Das said the case did not deserve the death penalty as it was not "the rarest of the rare cases", and ordered that Sanjoy Roy must spend his life behind bars.

The discovery of the trainee doctor's bloodied body at a government hospital in the eastern city of Kolkata in August 2024 sparked outrage.

The murder led to demands by doctors at government hospitals for additional security, with thousands of citizens in Kolkata and elsewhere in India joining doctors' protests in solidarity.

Roy, 33, the lone accused in the case, who had been a civic volunteer in the hospital, was arrested a day after the victim's body was discovered.

The victim's mother and father, who were seated close to Roy in court, have said they wanted Roy to be executed.

"We are shocked by the verdict", the victim's father told AFP, tears running down his face.

"We will continue our fight, and won't let investigations stop... Come what may, we will fight for justice."

The CBI, which took over the investigation from Kolkata Police, had demanded death penalty for Roy.
