

What Kate's friends tell me after she missed Ascot – and when we will see her again

REBECCA ENGLISH PAGES 20 & 21

Daily Mail

TUESDAY, JUNE 24, 2025

dailymail.co.uk

£1.20 90p to subscribers

SCAN TO SUBSCRIBE
AND SAVE

Labour accused of refusing to back America as Trump claims 'total ceasefire' agreed after attack on U.S. base

SO WHOSE SIDE ARE YOU ON, SIR KEIR?

Flaming sky: Explosions over Doha in Qatar yesterday

By Jason Groves, Harriet Line and Mark Nicol

KEIR Starmer risked being marginalised on the world stage last night after failing to back Donald Trump's strikes against Iran.

As Tehran launched revenge attacks

Daily Mail COMMENT

When genuine courage, conviction and statesmanship are needed, Sir Keir is nowhere to be seen. In every way that matters he, and sadly Britain, are becoming increasingly irrelevant.

on a US base in the Middle East, the Prime Minister was last night accused of a 'lack of moral clarity' as he refused to take sides in the deepening conflict.

Hours later, Mr Trump claimed a 'complete and total ceasefire' between Israel and Iran would be in place today.

Iran had fired missiles at America's giant Al Udeid Air Base and said the country's 'mighty and victorious' response to the assault on its

Turn to Page 6