eVTOL aircraft at Dubai Airshow

Air taxi to make first appearance in show's 34-year history

DUBAI
BY JUSTIN VARGHESE
Your Money Editor

Electric vertical take-off and landing (eVTOL) aircraft will appear for the first time in the Dubai Airshow's flying display this year, marking a milestone in the event's 34-year history.

Organisers confirmed that the 2025 edition, scheduled for November 17-21 at Dubai World Central, will include eVTOL demonstrations as part of a wider focus on Advanced Air Mobility (AAM). The inclusion highlights growing industry efforts to bring electric and hybrid aircraft closer to commercial use.

The Dubai Airshow will host more than 200 aircraft across static and flying displays — the largest line-up in its history. The roster spans commercial jets, military transporters, business aircraft, drones, and emerging aviation technologies.

100 countries at the event

The event is expected to draw over 1,500 exhibitors, 490 delegations, and representatives from nearly 100 countries. Organisers say the show will emphasise advances in regulation, certification, and infrastructure that are shaping next-generation air transport.

By introducing eVTOLs to the flying program, the 2025 Airshow signals how urban air mobility is becoming a tangible part of the global aviation landscape.

UAE delivers 46% of global aid to Gaza

GALLANT KNIGHT 3 CELEBRATES TWO YEARS SINCE LAUNCH OF AID MISSION

ABU DHABI
BY ALI AL HAMMADI
Reporter

Operation Gallant Knight 3 celebrated two years since the launch of its humanitarian mission in Gaza, under the theme 'Two Years of Gallantry, Continuous Giving'. The initiative showcased its projects, programmes, and achievements during a public gathering attended by political leaders, national factions, civil society organisations, and tribal elders.

According to figures shared on the official X account of the operation, the initiative has delivered 100,000 tonnes of diverse aid over more than 700 days — representing 46 per cent of the total assistance that entered Gaza. Aid was transported via land, sea, and air through more than 7,700 trucks and 21 ships, 10 of which departed from UAE ports, three from Al Arish, and eight from Cyprus. Additionally, 81 airdrops of humanitarian supplies were carried out under Operation Birds of Goodness.

73,000 patients treated

As part of its vital infrastructure support, Gallant Knight 3 established six desalination plants with a combined capacity of two million gallons per day. The UAE Field Hospital in Gaza has treated nearly 53,000 patients, while the UAE Floating Hospital in Al Arish has provided medical care to an additional 20,000.

In October, Gallant Knight 3 supplied 21 tankers of desalinated water to the Coastal Municipalities Water Utility to help meet the urgent water needs of families and communities facing acute shortages. These tankers — each with a capacity of 10 cubic meters and transporting up to 150,000 litres per trip — helped supply water to 200,000 residents.

On the food front, the operation provided 15,000 meals daily, benefiting 750,000 people, and operated eight bakeries producing around 25,700 loaves of bread each day — supporting nearly 128,500 individuals.

Local leaders and medical professionals expressed profound gratitude for the UAE's humanitarian role over the past two years of conflict in Gaza. Maher Mazhar, a senior figure in the Popular Front for the Liberation of Palestine, stated that the UAE's support extended beyond food, shelter, and medical relief — it also embodied political solidarity, reinforcing Palestinians' steadfastness on their land.
