

£500 John Lewis gift card to be won every day

Online access and Mail account required. Terms apply. SEE PAGE 42

Daily Mail

SATURDAY, FEBRUARY 1, 2025

dailymail.co.uk

£1.60

£1.30 to subscribers

SCAN TO SUBSCRIBE
AND SAVE

Four-page puzzle pullout to help beat dementia

Compiled by top brain health expert

ANDREW TOLD EPSTEIN: 'WE'LL PLAY MORE SOON'

Duke wrote email to billionaire paedophile telling him to 'keep in close touch' — AFTER date he claimed he'd broken off contact

By Sam Greenhill
Chief Reporter

PRINCE Andrew faces fresh pressure after it emerged he promised Jeffrey Epstein they would 'play some more soon!' weeks after supposedly cutting ties with the paedophile.

The Duke of York sent a bombshell email pledging to 'keep in close touch', despite claiming he had ceased all contact with the American financier weeks earlier, it has emerged.

The new evidence suggests Andrew may have lied in his infamous Newsnight interview. He insisted to Emily Maitlis in the disastrous 2019 grilling at Buckingham Palace that he had stopped seeing Epstein in early December 2010, when they were photographed walking

Will Ryan Reynolds' nice guy reputation
survive as wife
Blake Lively's
toxic feud hits court?

Turn to Page 4

PAGES 24-25