EXCLUSIVE INTERVIEW IN YOU MAGAZINE

Besieged Starmer dramatically axes Andrew Gwynne after MoS reveals damning dossier of vile WhatsApps

MINISTER SACKED FOR 'HOPE YOU DIE' JIBE ABOUT PENSIONERS

EXCLUSIVE

By Abul Taher and Glen Owen

A LABOUR Minister has been sacked after The Mail on Sunday exposed his racist and sexist messages, including one vile post saying he hoped a pensioner who didn't vote Labour would die before the next election.

Andrew Gwynne also made anti-Semitic slights and 'jokes' about a constituent being 'mown down' by a truck.

Keir Starmer stripped Mr Gwynne of his job as Health Minister and suspended his membership of the Labour Party when he was told about the content of the WhatsApp messages yesterday. Meanwhile, the MP himself apologised for his 'badly misjudged comments'.

A Government spokesman said: 'The Prime Minister is determined to uphold high standards of conduct in public office. He will not hesitate to take action against
