Dubai largest market for virtual assets

DUBAI

Gulf News Report

His Highness Shaikh Mohammad Bin Rashid Al Maktoum, Vice-President and Prime Minister of the UAE and Ruler of Dubai, affirmed that Dubai has become the world's largest licensed market for virtual assets, recording transactions exceeding Dh2.5 trillion since the beginning of 2025.

On his X account, Shaikh Mohammad wrote: "Three years ago, we made the decision to establish a new authority, the Dubai Virtual Assets Regulatory Authority under the supervision of Shaikh Maktoum Bin Mohammad. Today, Dubai stands as the world's largest licensed market for virtual assets, with transactions exceeding Dh2.5 trillion since the beginning of the year."

Trump, Al Sissi to chair Gaza peace summit in Egypt today

A 'DOCUMENT ENDING THE WAR IN THE GAZA STRIP' IS EXPECTED TO BE SIGNED

CAIRO

US President Donald Trump and his Egyptian counterpart Abdul Fattah Al Sissi will today chair a Gaza peace summit in Sharm Al Shaikh, also attended by world leaders including the UN chief.

Trump will first pass through Israel, addressing parliament and meeting with hostage families before heading to Sharm Al Shaikh, where a "document ending the war in the Gaza Strip" is expected to be signed, according to Cairo's foreign ministry.

World leaders to attend

The gathering in the Red Sea resort town will bring together "leaders from more than 20 countries", Al Sissi's office said.

It will aim "to end the war in the Gaza Strip, enhance efforts to achieve peace and stability in the Middle East, and usher in a new era of regional security and stability".

UN Secretary-General Antonio Guterres said he will attend, as will Britain's Prime Minister Keir Starmer, his Italian counterpart Giorgia Meloni and Pedro Sanchez of Spain.

French President Emmanuel Macron and Turkish President Recep Tayyip Erdogan will also attend. The European Council will be represented by its president, Antonio Costa. Jordan's King Abdullah II is also expected to attend.

Israel said it will not send a representative to the peace summit, while Hamas said it will release its remaining hostages today and will play no role in Gaza's future government.
