

SCAN TO SUBSCRIBE
AND SAVE

FREE £3* shop bet on the Grand National with Paddy Power
COUPON INSIDE GRAND NATIONAL PULLOUT

*18+ GB shops
only, online
excluded. Ex NI.
Terms apply.
Please Gamble Responsibly.

Each way bets pay
8 PLACES
instead of four

NEW ROYAL BOMBSHELL

KING DRAWN INTO CHINA SPY STORM

Andrew and 'fixer' sneaked into Windsor to meet Charles and discuss controversial Chinese-backed fund, court papers reveal

By Glen Keogh, Sam Greenhill
and Rebecca English

KING Charles was last night dragged into the Chinese spy scandal engulfing Prince Andrew.

His Majesty was briefed about an investment fund Andrew hoped would help with his finances and which involved his 'close confidant' Yang Tengbo – later banished from Britain as an alleged Beijing agent – according to court documents.

In an extraordinary twist, the Duke of York's business fixer Dominic Hampshire described how he and Andrew were twice smuggled into Windsor Castle for meetings with the King.

On both occasions, said to have been between November 2023 and May last year, the King, his brother and Mr Hampshire are said to have discussed 'what the duke can do moving forwards in a way that is acceptable to His Majesty' – after Andrew's income opportunities

Turn to Page 5

Russell Brand charged with rape and sexual assault against FOUR women

SEE PAGES 12-13