

The Mail

ON SUNDAY

JANUARY 26, 2025

£2.20 £1.90 to subscribers

SCAN TO SUBSCRIBE AND SAVE

SEE PAGES
18-20

EXPOSED How food giants use tobacco firms' tricks to get you hooked on UPFs

Months after Wynne Evans was embroiled in BBC 'groping' furore, MoS catches him on video making sick 'spit-roasting' remark

STRICTLY STAR'S VILE SEXUAL JIBE TO DANCER

DEMEANING: Tenor Wynne Evans

THE BBC was facing a fresh crisis last night after a Strictly Come Dancing star was caught on film by The Mail on Sunday making a vile sexual comment about one of the show's female hosts.

Wynne Evans – the tenor known for the Go Compare ads and a BBC radio presenter – was recorded crudely suggesting a three-way sex session with presenter Janette Manrara, using the hugely demeaning term 'spit roast'.

His gross comment came at a photocall to launch the Strictly live tour and swiftly earned

EXCLUSIVE

By Dolly Busby

SHOWBUSINESS REPORTER

a rebuke from BBC bosses who told him: 'We will not tolerate such behaviour.'

This is not the first time Evans has threatened the reputation of the BBC's biggest show as it attempts to recover from a string of scan-

Turn to Page Four >>

SHOWBIZ EXCLUSIVE

Kirstie's top secret wedding
...in the Love
Actually chapel

SEE PAGE 3