

How I lost 5 stone and kept it off for a decade — with no fat jabs, crazy diets or gym plans

INSPIRE STARTS PAGE 27

VISAS SCAM THAT MAKES MOCKERY OF PM'S PLEDGE ON MIGRATION

Exposed by the Mail — fixers who take cash to help unskilled workers fiddle the system

CORRUPT immigration advisers are helping illegal workers dupe the Home Office in a cash for visas scam, a Mail investigation has found.

They are charging up to £22,000 per person to provide 'skilled' jobs in the UK for under-qualified foreign workers.

It comes amid concern skilled

Daily Mail INVESTIGATIONS
UNIT

By Tom Kelly
Investigations Editor

worker visa routes could be hiding an immigration scandal 'worse than the small boats crisis'.

Critics claim it could render Sir Keir

Starmer's immigration crackdown pointless after he made new restrictions on skilled visas a major tool in ending the economy's reliance on cheap overseas labour.

The ruse has proved so lucrative that many companies have started up just to profit from hiring foreign staff — then shut down after a year, having extorted migrants and exploited them for cheap labour.

The scam involves businesses telling the Home Office they can't

Turn to Page 6

BBC's fight to save Strictly after soap
star's vile slur
INSIDE SHOWBIZ

SEE PAGE 17